Fees cover the following items at base*** between

10 Dec. and 07 April 2012:

- Full academic programme
- Full sports programme
- Pastoral care and laundry
- Local transportation
- Full board and lodging

Not included:

- £50 annual BSA registration fee
- £100 deposit per week, up to £300. Held separately from fees as a credit on account.
- Ski passes. A sliding scale depending on time stayed, to include the BSA's Les Houches base season pass and lane hire costs. Initial weekly ski passes are £110 for under 16's and £140 for 16 and over.
- Travel to and from home. Geneva Airport transfer fee: £60. Supervised check-ins included. (There is a £30 surcharge when a driver has to wait with an 'unaccompanied minor' until flight departure.) On shared transfers £20 extra due per head with the total cost shared.
- Excursion costs away from base
- Personal ski equipment and competition entry fees (remember to enter on time)
- Medical insurance and cancellation insurance: We recommend our customers take out travel insurance to include cancellation cover in case of illness, injury or unavoidable delay in departure from the UK. Please see overleaf.

* Receipt of Application Forms 1 and 2 with the registration fee (£50) and the deposit (up to £300) before 1 November 2011 entitles the family to BSA's lower or early booking rate of fees.

** 13 weeks is the maximum recommended during the 17 week period between 10 December & 07 April.

*** Base refers to the Etoile des Neiges, the BSA's exclusive chalet-hotel in Les Houches.

The British Ski Academy can arrange programmes for trainees who live off campus.

The fee for a sport + lunch + school programme is 60% of normal BSA fees (see above). The fee for ski training only is £60 per morning, and £80 per full day with lunch. At the British Championships the support/ training fee is £70 per day. At all other events it is £60 per day.

STGB Fees can be paid by donation through the Skiers Trust of Great Britain and the donor's tax reclaimed. Contact the BSA office for advice.

BSA Bursaries

BSA can discuss bursary awards for deserving cases. However no bursary would be forthcoming unless the racer's fees were being paid through the STGB.

Terms & Conditions

The Contract

- (i) The British Ski Academy will confirm your booking with an invoice on receipt of the appropriate deposit and your Acceptance form (Application part 2).
- (ii) The terms and conditions set out here, together with your confirmation invoice, comprise the agreement between you and the British Ski Academy.
- (iii) Payment of any monies constitutes a commitment to proceed with the booking once your application is confirmed by invoice and those monies are non-refundable unless your booking cannot be fulfilled.
- (iv) At the British Ski Academy we undertake to do our utmost to foster your racer's development in the sport of Alpine ski racing, to support their educational programme and to provide for their welfare.

Fees

50% of fees are due four weeks before arrival at the latest. (For bookings made within four weeks of arrival the deposit and 50% of fees are due immediately to secure the booking.) The balance is due no later than two weeks before arrival. (For bookings made within two weeks of arrival, the deposit and 100% of fees are due before the booking can be accepted.) Please note that we cannot run credit accounts. Trainees will not be received at the British Ski Academy if fees have not been paid in full before due arrival.

Cancellations

If you want to cancel your booking, you must tell us immediately. If you cancel, you will be liable to pay the cancellation charges set out in the table below. Charges depend on the date when we receive your cancellation.
